

University Life Professional Development March 2025 Newsletter

Happy Spring Break University Life!

With the weather starting to warm up and the sun shining a bit longer during the day, it's a great time to start thinking ahead to summer AND the 2025 UL Student Success Symposium! With the UL Pre-Symposium taking place on Tuesday, June 3 and the UL Symposium on Wednesday, June 4, the 2025 UL Symposium is our division's signature professional learning and development experience. The event provides an opportunity to connect with colleagues and engage in topics integral to our work, evolving our professional practices. Through commitment to the UL collaborative community, we learn more about the impact of our colleagues' contributions as we strive for student success.

The Call for Programs is now OPEN and you are invited to submit a program proposal. Details are included below can be found at <https://ulsymposium.gmu.edu/>.

Information regarding UL Symposium Registration will be sent to your inbox in April 2025!

UL Symposium Program Proposal Guidelines

To ensure your proposal is in alignment with UL Symposium program goals and learning outcomes, you are asked to consider the following in framing your proposal submission:

- Pose a question or situate the topic and provide information, insights and/or ideas on an emerging trend, issue, or topic to engage participants in conversation
- Explore how we might work differently to maximize student services and experiences while considering student pressures and issues
- Create conversation or interactive space to discuss innovative ideas, practices, and possibilities for our work in student retention, degree completion, and well-being
- Provide relevant knowledge and “take-away” applications for participants
